

Germany-Wisconsin Pact

Kaiser Friedrich IV. von Preußen

July 19, 1920

Between the Parties

The German Empire, hereinafter referred to as the “German Reich”

The Kingdom of Wisconsin, hereinafter referred to as “Wisconsin”

Jointly referred to as the “States”, “Parties” in the following agreement.

Agreement Signature:
DE-D1B6AA043F8E2B72BFE19B67F2370C7A

General Provisions

§1 Contractual Validity

- (1) The following agreement shall remain valid until an agreement to annul the agreement is drafted and signed by all contracting parties.
- (2) This agreement is subordinate to national constitutions and jurisdictions.
- (3) Decisions made under this agreement must be approved by the majority of the contracting members.
- (4) The designation of the States corresponds to their names at the time of the initial signing.
- (5) Only legitimate successors of the States have the right to continue the membership of their predecessor in the agreement without signing.
- (6) This also means the full recognition of the entire contents thereof.
- (7) Any state must be sovereign to sign this agreement.

§2 Legitimate Successor

A legitimate successor is one who is recognized as such by the members of the Imperial Pact.

Military Agreements

§3 Non-Aggression Pact

- (1) Both Parties agree not to undertake any military actions against the other, unless prescribed by the Imperial Pact.
- (2) Additionally, the contracting parties agree not to support any military actions against the other.
- (3) Financing and otherwise advancing such operations also fall under this provision.

§4 Defense Agreement

- (1) Both Parties agree to actively support the other in the event of defensive measures that are not clearly and almost exclusively self-inflicted.
- (2) This includes the imposition of extensive sanctions against the attacking nation.

§5 Further Military Obligations

Both Parties are not obliged to support the other in other military situations.

Agreements on Other Treaties

§6 Arms Control Law

- (1) The German Reich lifts the validity of the Arms Control Law for Wisconsin without exception and authorizes them to revoke the guarantee in this regard.
- (2) In the event of war, regardless of the reason and the participation in the declaration of war, the German Reich guarantees to supply Wisconsin with free weapons and free ammunition once.

§7 Caribbean Pact

The German Reich agrees to demilitarize the island of Bermuda and place it under joint administration.

§8 Trade of Magical Weapons

The German Reich agrees to arrange the trade of magical weapons and other magical goods for Wisconsin, but will not carry out such trade itself due to the Arms Control Law with Keosu Teikoku.